6th Annual Seattle Race Conference

Movements for Reparations:
Restoring Racial Justice, Building Unity and Healing Our Diverse Communities

Saturday, October 11th
8:30AM-4PM
Seattle Center Northwest Rooms
Open to the public

This conference will explore what the movement for redress means for our diverse communities. This year also marks the 20th anniversary of Redress to Japanese Americans incarcerated during WWII. Our goal is community education on the ways reparations can play a role in racial reconciliation and healing as well as build bridges between all our communities.
